

A 'two-bit rude boy side' have signed 23-year-old full back Charlie 'Happy Feet' Lloyd from last years AFC South 8 runners up Old Thorntonians FC. Lloyd has inked a one-year deal with the option of another 12 months at the Middlesex County League side after passing a medical and agreeing personal terms at the weekend.

Ex-Old Thorns full Back Charlie Lloyd

The Boss of this two-bit rude boy side decided to sign up the former Old Thorns captain and last winner of last seasons Managers Player trophy, after he impressed on trial at the club over the last 3 weeks

Competition

His new boss, some rude boy, had this to say "I believe he (Lloyd) will add to the fierce competition we've got in defence and offer us different qualities to the lads we already have on board. He isn't the type of player who is necessarily going to lift supporters out of their seats with dazzling skills, but he brings other attributes. He is strong, brave, and has little legs and a big voice"

Lloyd, who seemed to have left the Old Thorntonians FC in a blaze of controversy, released this rather heart felt statement.

"Unfortunately I won't be donning the Old T's 3rd team strip this season. I have joined a team in the Middlesex County League. It's a bit closer to home and it means my dear old Granddad can come and cheer me on. Anyway, good luck for the new season and to the new skipper. We got promoted last season so no pressure. Also, good luck keeping the squad's doggers, drinkers and ketamine heads in check. I'm going to miss the Old T's 3rd team - Unhappy Feet"

Old Thorns boss Nathan Gilligan was unfortunately unavailable to comment.
