

The Match - August 2007

The hotly anticipated match between the Dads, coaches, Grandads and anyone else stupid enough to come along was eventually played on Sunday morning at the Rec. The teams were 4 a side with the bibs electing to play uphill in the first half.

Bibs:	Mark	Non bibs:	Nigel
	Bert		Paul
	Rob		Jason
	Simon		Nick

The match started at electric pace which I think everyone paid within a minute of the start! The first chance fell to the bibs when Nick pulled off a miracle save (or so he says) to deny Rob but luckily for the bibs Simon was on hand to slot home the rebound to make it a deserved one nil to the bibs.

Details of the match from this point on are a little sketchy so apologies for this...

The non-bibs equalized but unfortunately that was as good as it got for the non-bibs as they fell to a half time deficit of 4-1. There were a few calls for the official time keeper to be sacked as it was felt that the 15 minutes was lasting a very long time!

The second half was played at walking pace and the final score was 6-1 to the bibs. It was unanimously decided afterwards that a Dads match would only happen again if it were for charity and at least one sub per team!

The man of the match in the opinion of the match report writer goes to Rob (Lucas Dad) for his effortless running and many assists.

Below are some of the photos from the event:

The 'Warm – Up'

Watch the ball

Jason uses his skills to get past no-one

The adoring fans

Walking pace sets in

The effort begins to show

One of many goal mouth scrambles

match

Effortless running from the man of the Keepers!

from here!

Bert points out that he can see the pub

The pathetic bunch!