Kennet Valley FC Code of Conduct.

KENNET VALLEY FC COPY

Introduction:

The Code of conduct applies to all Managers, Trainers, Coaches, parents, players and spectators who are associated, in any manner, with Kennet Valley Football Club.

It applies equally to matches and training sessions, as well as to the periods prior to and after matches and functions.

Penalties for non-compliance with the code are at the discretion of the Team Managers and/or the Committee, and may be additional to any penalties imposed by the Football Association or governing bodies of any competition in which the club participates.

Conduct which is unacceptable to Kennet Valley F.C.:

- You must not argue with or question out loud any decision made by referees or assistant referees during matches.
- You must not argue with, abuse or threaten any player, official or spectator of an opposing team.
- You must not use any form of foul, abusive, threatening or discriminatory language or behaviour towards any person.
- You must not blame, criticise or argue with Kennet Valley FC players, team officials or spectators.
- You must not become unduly upset after a goal is conceded, regardless of circumstances, or if a player is substituted during a match, or when a match is lost.

Conduct which is encouraged and expected by Kennet Valley F.C.:

- Kennet Valley F.C. spectators and Managers must set a good example to the club's players in terms of conduct, attitude and appreciation of good sportsmanship.
- Kennet Valley F.C. spectators and Managers should always demonstrate their appreciation of good football and sportsmanship displayed by both their own team and the opposition.
- Kennet Valley F.C. spectators, Managers and players should congratulate the opposing team on their performance and should part in a friendly and sporting manner at the end of all matches.
- Kennet Valley F.C. Managers should congratulate their counterparts, match officials and everyone who participated, at the end of a match.
- Kennet valley F.C. spectators and parents should actively encourage and support their own team but should not become involved in any action which would serve to undermine the authority and role of team Managers and Coaches.
- Kennet Valley F.C. spectators, managers, players and parents are required to ignore any bad behaviour or display of poor sportsmanship by the opposition.
- Kennet Valley F.C parents are required to reinforce all aspects of this code of conduct with their children, whether players or spectators.

I have read and agree with the club code of conduct.
